Friday 15th December 2023

Dear Parents and Carers,

We have had a wonderful Christmassy week at school and I am very proud of each and everyone of them.

The children performed beautifully in our Christmas Carol Concert on Tuesday and thank you for coming along and supporting them. It was lovely to see every child taking part in the singing, the actions and backed up with the beautiful bell playing. The soloists were phenomenal this year and demonstrated great courage, confidence and skill. The narrators told the story of Christmas with clarity and confidence. The Year 6 made it magical with their solo carrying their lit up angels with messages of hope and peace. Thank you to Andrew Yates and the Paul Church community for allowing us to host our concert in the church. Also, to Chris Yacoubain for the beautiful lighting and spectacular pictures he has taken of the children. A massive thank you must go to Ms Judge who has worked tirelessly with the children with such wonderful outcomes. Her enthusiasm and expertise is much appreciated by us all.

On Wednesday we celebrated in school with our Christmas lunch. The children enjoyed making crackers and hats for the occasion and tucked in joyously to their dinners. Thank you to Bex and Sarah for producing such a festive meal!

Thursday morning we had a lovely school assembly with all the musicians, their music teachers and parents. I was amazed that at least a third of the children in the school are playing an instrument now. Children of all ages showed great courage and confidence playing in front of such a large audience and many overcame their worries to share their wonderful skills with us with joy and enthusiasm. A huge thank you to all the music teachers who provide these super opportunities for our children to perform comfortably.

Well done to Porthchapel House (Yellow) who achieved the most house points this term with 2418 points. They chose a well deserved house treat of watching a Christmas film, wearing pyjamas or Christmas jumper with popcorn!

Next week we have our Christmas Fair on Monday 18th December. Please collect your child at 2.30pm from the reception area and walk around to the entrance to the hall via the staff carpark.

On Tuesday we are going to watch Elemental at the Savoy cinema as a kind Christmas treat courtesy of FROMS. Please collect your child from outside the cinema at 3.05pm.

Please note that from January 2024 the school day will run from 8.45am-3.15pm as reiterated in the letter that went home on Thursday.

I hope you all have a super weekend and are beginning to feel Christmassy!

Best wishes
